SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, you will be on supervised release for a term of:

THREE (3) YEARS.

MANDATORY CONDITIONS

1. You must not commit another federal, state or local crime.
2. You must not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.
3. You must refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. You must submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court.
☐ The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the court's determination that you pose a low risk of future substance abuse. (check if applicable)
4. ☒ You must make restitution in accordance with 18 U.S.C. §§ 3663 and 3663A or any other statute authorizing a sentence of restitution. (check if applicable)
5. ☒ You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (check if applicable)
6. ☐ You must comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (34 U.S.C. § 20901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in the location where you reside, work, are a student, or were convicted of a qualifying offense. (check if applicable)
7. ☐ You must participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (check if applicable)

You must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any other conditions on the attached page.

DEFENDANT: Vianney Capellan
CASE NUMBER: 1:S1 18 CR 540- 02(CM)

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. ADDITIONAL SUPERVISED RELEASE TERMS

The Court recommends that the defendant be supervised in the district of residence. In addition to the standard conditions, the following special conditions apply:

The defendant is to participate in a mental health program approved by the United States Probation Office. Defendant is to continue taking any prescribed psychiatric medication, unless otherwise directed not to by a mental health professional. The Court authorizes the release of available evaluations and reports to the mental health provider, as approved by the Probation Department. The defendant will be required to contribute to the cost of the mental health treatment services, in the amount to be determined by the Probation Officer, based on ability to pay or availability of third-party payment.

You must provide the probation officer with access to any requested financial information. You must not incur new credit charges or open additional lines of credit without the approval of the probation officer, unless you are in compliance with the installment payment schedule.

CASE NUMBER: 1:S1 18 CR 540- 02(CM)

ADDITIONAL PAYMENT TERMS

Defendant must make restitution in the amount of $2,392,198.00, payable to the Clerk of the Court, for further distribution to the victims listed in a sealed appendix to the present judgment and the Order of Restitution. (See Restitution Order filed on March 31, 2021). A copy of the Appendix has been provided to the Court's Finance Department.

Defendant's restitution obligation is joint and several with codefendants, Robert Giuliano (18 CR 548 (PKC)) and Rodin Diaz (18 CR 540 (CM))—no further payment shall be required after the sum of the amounts actually paid by all codefendants has fully covered all of the compensable injuries. Any payment made by the defendant must be divided among the victims in proportion to their compensable injuries.

If the defendant is engaged in a BOP non-UNICOR work program, the defendant must pay $25 per calendar quarter toward the criminal financial penalties. However, if the defendant participates in the BOP's UNICOR program as a grade 1 through 4, the defendant must pay 50% of their monthly UNICOR earnings toward the criminal financial penalties, consistent with BOP regulations at 28 C.F.R. ' 545.11. Any remaining balance in the restitution after defendant is released from prison shall be paid in monthly installments of 15% of gross monthly income (but no less than $100) over the period of supervision, commencing 30 days after defendant's release from custody. The defendant must notify the United States Attorney for this district within 30 days of any change of mailing or residence address that occurs while any portion of the restitution remains unpaid.

In addition, defendant must forfeit to the United States the sum of $744,725.00. (See Forfeiture Order filed on March 31, 2021).

Defendant must also pay a $100 special assessment to the Clerk of the Court- the assessment is due immediately.
